2021 SUFFOLK PEANUT FEST QUEEN CROWNED

SUFFOLK, VA: Suffolk Festivals, Inc. is pleased to announce the official crowning of the 2021 Suffolk Peanut Fest Queen, during a ceremony held Monday, September 27, at the Suffolk Visitor Center Pavilion. Queen Abigail Conrod from Nansemond-Suffolk Academy is the latest addition to Suffolk Peanut Fest royalty and her Court is comprised of Savannah Stevenson and Hannah Bass (Lakeland High School), Dori Mitchell (Nansemond-Suffolk Academy), Sydney Basnight and Jadyn Patton (Suffolk Christian Academy), Morgan Holloman (King's Fork High School), and A'lauren Gilchrist (Nansemond River High School). The individuals chosen to be a part of this hometown tradition must be rising high school seniors at a Suffolk school. Each candidate submits a creative essay reflecting on the current festival theme along with information about academics, activities, awards, achievements, and community involvement. To read the Queen's winning essay in its entirety, visit SuffolkPeanutFest.com for Abigail Conrod's "Party in the Back," her clever interpretation of this year's festival theme: "Music, Mullets & Motorsports: A Totally 80's Vibe."
